

Legal Terminology Definitions

Latin Terms:

a fortiori - With stronger reason a priori - From the cause to the effect ab initio - From the beginning actiones in personam - Personal actions ad curiam - Before a court; to court ad damnum clause - To the damage, clause in a complaint stating monetary loss ad faciendum - To do ad hoc - For this purpose or occasion ad litem - For this suit or litigation ad rem - To the thing at hand ad valorem - According to the value adversus - Against aggregatio mentium - Contractual meeting of the minds alias dictus - An assumed name alibi - In another place, elsewhere aliunde - From another place, from without (as in evidence outside the document) alter ego - The other self amicus curiae - "friend of the court" brief animo - With intention, disposition, design or will animus - Mind or intention ante litem motam - before the suit or before litigation is filed arguendo - In the course of an argument assumpsit - He undertook or promised bona fide - Good faith capias - Take, arrest captia - Persons, or heads causa mortis - By reason of death caveat - Beware, a warning caveat emptor - "Let the buyer beware" certiorari - "send the pleadings up", indicating a discretionary review process Cestui - Beneficiaries Cestui que trust - Beneficiaries of a trust circa - In the area of, about or concerning compos mentis - Of sound mind consortium - The conjugal fellowship of husband and wife contra - Against coram nobis - Before us ourselves corpus - Body corpus delicti - Body of the offense cum testamento annexo - "With the will annexed" datum - Information or the thing given de facto - In fact, in deed or actually de jure - Of right, lawful de novo - Anew or afresh de son tort - Of his own wrong dies non - Not a day duces tecum - bring with you dum bene se gesserit - While he shall conduct himself, during good behavior e converso - Conversely or on the other hand en banc - All judges present on the bench to hear a case eo instanti - Upon the instant erratum - Error et alii - And others et sequentia - And as follows et ux - And wife et vir - And husband ex delicto - Arising from a tort ex gratia - As a matter of favor ex officio - From office, by virtue of his office ex parte - By or for one party only ex post facto - After the fact facto - In fact, in or by the law felonice - Feloniously fiat - Let it be done, a short order that a thing be done fieri - To be made up, to become fieri facias - Writ directing a sheriff to reduce a judgment debtor's property to money flagrante delicto - In the very act of committing the crime forum non conveniens - Power to decline jurisdiction over a case and have it tried elsewhere gravis - Serious, of importance habeas corpus - Writ commanded to the custodian of a person to produce the body now habendum clause - The part of a deed beginning "to have and to hold" and defining ownership honorarium - Fee, gift or compensation from gratitude idem - The same as above (id.)

idem sonans - To have the same sound, as in names sounding alike but spelled differently in curia - In court in esse - In being, existence in forma pauperis - Permission given to a poor person to sue without liability for court costs infra - Beneath; below in limine - At the beginning; At the threshold in loco parentis - In place of the parent in pari delicto - In equal fault in personam - Personally, or against the person in praesenti - At once; now in re - In the matter in rem - A proceeding against a thing in specie - In the same or in similar form instante - Immediately inter alia, inter alios - Among other things or between other persons inter se - Among themselves inter vivos - Between the living; or from one person to another in toto - In the whole; completely in transitu - In transit intra - Within; inside ipse dixit - He himself said (it), as an assertion made but not proved ipso facto - By the fact itself ita est - so it is jura personarum - Right of a person, rights of persons jura rerum - Rights of things jure divino - By divine rights jure uxoris - In his wife's right jus - Law or right jus ad rem - A right to a thing jus commune - The common law or common right jus gentium - The law of nations or international law jus habendi - The right to have a thing and retain the profits jus tertii - The right of a third party levari facias - Cause to be levied, a writ of execution lex - Law lex loci - The law of the place where the cause of action arose lis pendens - Litigation pending locus delicti - The place of the crime locus sigilli - The place for the seal mala - Bad mala fides - Bad faith mala in se - An act that is morally wrong mala praxis - Malpractice mala prohibita - An act declared as criminal by statute mala animo - Acting with evil intent mandamus - A writ used to compel an official to perform a required act manu forti - Forcible entry mens rea - Guilty mind nihil dicit - He says nothing nil - Nothing nil debet - He owes nothing nisi prius - Distinguishing the trial court from the appellate court nolle prosequi - Unwilling to prosecute nolo contendere - "I will not contest it"; a criminal plea non - Not non assumpsit - Plea in defense; that he did not promise non compos mentis - "Not of sound mind" non est factum - "It is not his deed" non obstante - Notwithstanding non sequitur - "It does not follow" nota bene - Note well; take notice nudum pactum - A bare agreement lacking consideration nol tort - "No wrong done" nulla bona - "No good" nunc pro tunc - "Now for then" obiter dictum - A remark made by a court that is not central to a main issue in the case. onus probandi - Burden of Proof opus - Work or labor ore tenus - By word of mouth pari delicto - In equal fault pari passu - By equal progress pater familias - Father of the family peculium - Private property pendens - "Pending" pendente lite - Pending the suit, during litigation per annum - Annual, by the year per capita - By the head, equally shared per contra - "In opposition" per curiam - "By the court" per diem - By the day per se - Taken alone per stirpes - By the roots or stock (for purposes of inheritance) post - After, later post-factum - After the fact post-obit - Taking effect after death praecipe - A Writ commanding a person to do some act or show cause to be excused from acting prima facie - At first sight, on the face of it pro bono - "For the good" Describes services performed free of charge pro forma - "As a matter of form" Describing statements or conclusions based on assumed facts pro hac vice - "For this occasion" pro rata - A distribution according to the rate or proportion pro se - Appearing for oneself; personally pro tanto - For so much, to that extent pro tempore - For the time being, temporarily prochein ami - "Next friend" publici juris - Of public right pur autre vie - For or during the life of another quaere - A question or query quaerens - The plaintiff quantum - How much, the amount quare - "Wherefore" quasi - As if, as if it were true quid pro quo - "Something for something" quo warranto - "By what right or authority" res - the thing, object or subject matter res gestae - Things done; an excited utterance res ipsa loquitur - "The thing speaks for itself" res judicata - "A thing or matter adjudged" respondeat superior - "Let the master answer" scienter - Knowledge scilicet - "To wit; or namely" scintilla - A spark scire facias - Give notice secundum - According to se defendendo - "In self defense" semper - Always seriatim - Severally, separately sic - Used to indicate an error in original quoted material sigillum - A seal sine - "Without" sine die - "Without a day assigned for a future meeting" sine qua non - An indispensable condition or part stare decisis status quo - "Present state" sua sponte - Voluntarily sub nomine - Under the name of sub silentio - Without notice being taken sui generis - Of its own kind or class sui juris - Of his own right supersedeas - Superseding supra - Above, cited prior in the document tenere - To hold, to keep terminus a quo - The starting point ultra - Beyond ultra vires - Without power venire facias - "That you cause to come" versus - Against videlicet - "It is easy to see" vi et armis - "By force and arms" vis-a-vis - One who is face to face with another vivos - Living voir dire - "To speak the truth"

Legal Terms:

abatement - Reduction, termination abrogation - Annulment of a former law by a legislative body, constitutional authority or usage acceptance - Consent to abide by the terms of an offer accession - That which increases the size or value of property accommodation - Arrangement made as a favor to another, not for consideration acknowledgment - Admission, affirmation, or declaration acquittal - Release or discharge of an obligation ademption - Satisfaction of a legacy by gift prior to testator's death adhesion contract - Standard contract form which a party with little bargaining power must accept adjudication - Judgment or decision of a court administrative law - Body of law promulgated by an administrative agency adverse possession - Acquiring title to real estate by hostile possession affiant - One who makes or swears to the truth of an affidavit affidavit - Sworn written statement affirmative defense - an allegation of a responsive pleading negating the allegations in a complaint agent - A person authorized to act for another with the other's business agreement - A meeting of the minds allegation - Assertion made but not proved amortization - The gradual extinction of a monetary obligation by periodic payments amnesty - Sovereign forgetfulness of past acts, usually available for a limited time ancillary - Auxiliary, supplemental, subordinate annotation - A remark, note or commentary intended to illustrate or explain annul - Cancel, make void or destroy answer - Written pleading by which a defendant responds to plaintiff's complaint antitrust laws - Federal and state laws to prevent restraint of trade or price fixing appeal - Review by a higher court appellant - Party who brings / files an appeal appellee - Party who defends an appeal appraisal - Valuation or estimate of property value arbitration - the investigation and determination of a dispute by a neutral decision-maker arraignment - Criminal hearing where the accused is formally charged and pleads assault - Threat of imminent bodily harm asset - Property owned by an estate assignment - Transfer any right, title or interest to another attestation - The act of witnessing the signing of a document assumption of the risk - Bar to recovery where a party voluntarily exposes themselves to a risk attachment - Pre-judgment seizure of property based upon court order attest - Certify or affirm to be true or genuine attorney-in-fact - One appointed to act in specific matters described in a power of attorney aver - Assert, allege or claim bailment - Delivery of personal property to another to be held for a particular person beneficiary - One who benefits from the act of another bequest - Gift of personal property by will breach - The unexcused failure to perform when performance is due brief - A written argument of counsel capacity - Having legal authority or mental ability caption - Part of a pleading stating the name of the court, parties, case number, and pleading title cause of action - Facts giving rise to a legal remedy, or the legal remedy itself chattel - Personal property choate - Perfected or complete chose in action - A personal right not yet reduced to a judgment civil code - A collection of laws or statutes relating to private rights or remedies civil law - Laws regulating private rights and remedies as opposed to criminal law CLA - Certified Legal Assistant Code Civil - The law of the State of Louisiana code - Collection of laws or statutes by subject matter codicil - An addition or change in a will common law - The law based upon custom, usage and judicial decision community property - Property owned in common by a husband and a wife commutation - Substitution of a lesser punishment for a greater one condemnation - The process of taking private property for public use under eminent domain consideration - Lawful price, motive, or cause impelling influence or inducement for a contract contract - An agreement between competent parties to do or refrain from doing a lawful act conversion - Wrongful taking of personal property with the permanent intent to deprive its owner copyright - A right to reap the financial benefits of literary property covenant - An agreement or promise, often restricting the use of real estate creditor - One to whom a debt or obligation is owned criminal law - Laws controlling standards of conduct and prescribing punishment for disobedience debenture - Bond given as evidence of corporate debt decree - The final order of an equity court defamation - That which injures one's reputation or holds one up to contempt deponent - One who gives a deposition deposition - Sworn testimony given in an oral question & answer setting, transcribed by a reporter devise - Gift of real property by a will discharge - To release, annul or dismiss duress - Unlawful constraint forcing another to perform an act enjoin - To prevent or forbid by injunction equity - Justice administered by principles of fairness escheat - The reversion of property to the state where no heirs exist to inherit the same estop - To stop, bar, prevent estoppel - Doctrine preventing legal relief because of a failure to act eviction - To recover real estate by forced removal from the property evidentiary - Constituting evidence or proof exemption - An immunity from a general burden, tax, or charge felony - A crime punishable by imprisonment for one year or more fraud - Any artifice used to deceive another general denial - Pleading denying allegations without making affirmative defenses grantee - The buyer of real property grantor - The seller of real property guarantor - One who agrees to undertake a financial obligation of another guaranty - An agreement to undertake the financial obligation of another guardian - One responsible to manage personal matters of another who is incompetent guardian ad litem - Person appointed by a court to look after the interest of a child in litigation inchoate - Unfinished, incomplete indemnify - To restore a loss by repayment or repair indictment - A grand jury's accusation against a defendant indorsement - Writing your name on the back of a commercial instrument to assign it to another infant - One who has not reached the age of majority information - A prosecutor's written accusation against a defendant injunction - An court order requiring a person to do or refrain from doing something insolvent - A condition where total liabilities exceed total assets interlocutory - Not final, interim, provisional interrogatories - A series of formal written questions requiring written answers in discovery intestate - One who dies without a will judgment - Final order of a court of law jurat - Clause of a notary public or authorized attesting witness jurisdiction - Power conferred on a court jurisprudence - The science of law laches - Doctrine by which equitable relief is denied to one who has waited too long to seek relief legal assistant - Assists an attorney in the practice of law lessee - One who possesses or uses the property of another; tenant lessor - The title holder of property who contracts for its possession or use by another; landlord liable - Legally responsible libel - Written defamation lien - A charge, security or encumbrance on property liquidated - Property or claim that has been converted into cash litigation - Contest in a court of law magistrate- Court officer with limited judicial authority malfeasance - Evil doing or performance of an act with bad intent malpractice - Professional negligence mediation - An attempt at settlement through a neutral party memorandum of law - A brief of law submitted to a court or written answer to a legal question memorandum opinion - A very short opinion of a court merger - Absorption of one thing or right into another metes and bounds - Method to describe / measure real property minor - A person who is not an adult misdemeanor - A criminal offense punishable by a fine or incarceration for less than one (1) year misfeasance - The improper performance of an otherwise lawful act mitigation - Duty to minimize damages mortgage - A security interest in real estate mortgagee - One who receives a mortgage mortgagor - One who gives a mortgage motion - An application to receive an interim ruling or order motion in limine - Application requesting a court to rule to suppress evidence in advance to trial negligence - Failure to use the care which a reasonable and prudent person would notary public - Public officer who administers oaths and acknowledges documents novation - Substitution of a new contract for an existing one nuncupative - Oral; not in writing oath - A solemn pledge attesting to the truth of a statement offer - A promise to do or not to do something offeree - One to whom an offer is made offeror - One who makes an offer option - Right to purchase supported by consideration order - A mandate or command ordinance - A legislative enactment by a local government parol evidence - Oral proof of contract terms parole - Release from imprisonment upon specified conditions patent - an inventor's right to protect an invention for 17 years paternity - The father/child relationship payee - One to whom payment is made payor - One who makes payment pecuniary - Monetary or relating to money perjury - False testimony given under oath pleading - (In federal court) - a complaint, an answer and a reply power of attorney - Instrument authorizing another to act as an attorney in fact precedent - A holding of a case which guides future decisions in similar circumstances privileged communications - Statements made by persons within protected relationships probable cause - Justification to believe that a crime was committed probation - A sentence releasing a person into the community conditionally promissory estoppel - Doctrine preventing a party from denying consideration for a contract promissory note - A written promise to pay a specific sum of money at a future time proximate cause - Legal act; last act leading to an injury proxy - An instrument authorizing one to cast votes of another at a corporate meeting punitive damages - Damages to punish the wrongdoer quash - Suppress quiet title action - Action to determine clear title to real property quitclaim deed - A deed that does not contain any warranties recidivist - A repeat offender release - The discharge of an obligation replevin - An action to recover person property rescission - An equitable remedy invalidating a contract because of fraud or mistake restitution - Restoration damages service of process - Delivery of a writ and summons to a named person settlor - One who creates a trust slander - Oral or spoken defamation specific performance - An equitable remedy requiring performance of contract terms statute - A legislative enactment statute of limitations - A statute limiting the time that a cause of action may be filed stipulation - An agreement between parties subpoena - A writ commanding one's appearance subpoena duces tecum - A writ commanding the named person to appear and bring documents summons - Notice that a suit has been filed with a direction to respond survey - A process to measure a tract of land temporary restraining order - An emergency injunctive remedy testimonium clause - "In witness whereof" tickler system - Reminder system tort - a civil wrong trust account - The account for client funds unconscionable - Grossly unfair usury - The excess over the lawful interest rate vendee - The purchaser or buyer of property vendor - The seller of property venue - The location where an action is tried verdict - The finding of fact by a jury or a judge verification - Confirmation of accuracy void - Having no legal force or effect voidable - That which is capable of being declared invalid warranty - A promise to defend the truth warranty deed - A deed conveying land guaranteeing that the title is free of certain defects with prejudice - A declaration ending the right to further relief without prejudice - A declaration preserving rights or privileges witness - One with personal knowledge about facts related to a case writ of execution - A post-judgment order to seize property in order to satisfy the judgment